MANAGEMENT EXCELLENCE AWARDS 2010

Leading the Search for Australia's Best Managers

Leader with a Gift for Business

Talented, committed leaders at all levels help us define management excellence. They spark ambition in aspiring managers and draw admiration and inspiration from captains of industry.

Join Naomi Simson, Founder and Chief Experiences Officer, RedBalloon at this special dinner event to share in her amazing business story.

In 2001, Naomi left behind a successful corporate marketing career and founded RedBalloon with a clear vision to change experiential gift giving forever. Through enthusiasm, energy and drive, she has built the business into one of Australia's most successful online retailers – making the BRW Fast list for six consecutive years.

Naomi will join AIM in to celebrate with the leaders of the Cairns business community at this black tie dinner event – incorporating the 2010 Management Excellence Awards Cairns Regional Final.

The Management Excellence Awards are one of the few awards that recognise the individual manager's excellence in management and leadership and celebrate their contributions and achievements.

Book now to celebrate the town's best and brightest, and hear from the force behind one of Australia's most successful online retailers.
