"Send Off Party" for Lars

Hi everyone

This Saturday night 19th January, after a tough Saturday morning workout I am sure, we are having a few drinks and a barbeque to say "Goodbye and Thank You" to Lars ... at Brett and Kahlia's house

Partners and kids welcome

Brett and Kahlia have a pool too so bring your swimmers if you think you might fancy a dip

We will kick off at 5-ish

The address is 21 Parkinson Drive, Kewarra Beach which is on the western side of the highway

It's a gated estate and you will need to call the house to have the gate opened

The directions are on the call box and its very simple

If you have any dramas just call my mobile on 0401 655 181

Please let me know if you are coming and who you are bringing so we ensure there are enough snags to throw on the barbie

Please bring a plate of nibbles to share and also BYO drinks and towels and chairs

Sharon Roneberg and Queensland Police Inspector Rhys Newton with a new sign on the fence of the Cairns Baseball field at Trinity Beach telling people that Tanya says "Don't drink and drive." PICTURE: STEWART MCLEAN

SEPTEMBER 8, 2019

The Ronebergs sponsored the signs around the home run fence but chose a public safety message instead of a business advertisement.

"You don't want to be like our family," Ms Roneberg said.

"You don't want to lose your daughter or mum, father, son or friend; you don't want to be the cause of a tragedy."

The signs were produced in conjunction with the Cairns Baseball League and the Queensland Police Service.

"It has been a privilege to be associated with the banners," Inspector Rhys Newton said.

"The amount of people who still drink and drive is staggering; this message is one of poignancy and has significance for us."

He said driving without drinking was a matter of "Planning and forethought."

"It is easy to manage - it affects everyday people everyday."

New drink drive campaign: "Tanya says don't... so don't"

The mother of a cyclist tragically killed by a drink driver has let her daughter do the talking in a new road safety campaign.

Pete Martinelli, The Cairns Post

CYCLIST Tanya Roneberg was head strong, confident and said mum Sharon, "a bit bossy."

The longstanding baseball family have let Tanya's memory speak for itself on road safety banners erected at the Cairns Baseball Fields at Trinity Beach.

"Tanya says don't drink and drive, so don't," Ms Roneberg said at the unveiling during yesterday's Cairns Baseball League A Grade grand final.

Ironman competitor Tanya Roneberg was killed on the Captain Cook Highway by a drink driver in 2013.

The P Plater hit Ms Roneberg, 37, as she rode her bicycle on May 11.

The driver, 19, of Mt Isa, had drunk 15 rum and cokes the previous night and registered a road side blood alcohol reading of .091 per cent.

Sharon Roneberg said the pain and loss of that day would never leave her family.

"Every time you see an accident your heart sinks and you think 'oh no, not again.'"
